

EDUCATION WEEK TO BE OBSERVED

School Board, Faculty and Mothers' Council to Co-operate.

PROGRAM IS ARRANGED

Education Week will be celebrated in Narberth during the coming week with unusually interesting programs, in which Mothers' Council, the School Board and the Principal and Faculty of the Narberth Schools, as well as other civic organizations, will co-operate. The opening meeting will be the regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' Council on Monday evening, November 14, at 8 o'clock in the Library of the Narberth School. The program will include addresses by Rev. Robert E. Keighton, on "Spiritual Education"; W. Russell Green, on "Civic Education," and Mrs. C. A. Farmer, on "Community Education."

The award of certificates and prizes to successful members of the Vacation Reading Club will be made by Mrs. R. F. Wood, librarian of the Public Library. Four pupils of the Narberth Schools will receive certificates, having completed the suggested course of reading during the past summer and having submitted note books on these readings. Those receiving certificates are Isabel McFarland, Anita McFarland, Elliott Moor and George McDevitt.

All parents in Narberth, whether members of Mothers' Council or not, are cordially invited to attend this meeting. The meetings of the Council have been well attended by the mothers, but it is hoped that this program may also interest the fathers of Narberth school children.

Another interesting event of the week will be the night session of school on Friday evening, November 18, from 7 to 9 o'clock. Classes will be held in the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grades, and except for the necessary shortening of class periods will be as nearly like the school day as possible. A similar session last year proved very interesting and helpful to the parents.

An added attraction of Friday evening will be a regular monthly meeting of the School Board, which will be held in the office of Principal Wilson at the school building. The School Board is showing its interest in Education Week by holding its meeting at a time and place where parents who are visiting the night session of their children's classes may see the Board at work.

More than 50 mothers of the Junior High School children met last Monday with the teachers of the Seventh and Eighth grades. After group meetings with teachers in each of the rooms, tea was served in the library. These grade meetings have proved to be of great interest and help to the mothers, and have been very well attended.

PENN CHAPLAIN COMING

Rev. Jack Hart to Visit Gara Bible Class Friday.

An exceptional opportunity will be given the men of the Bible Schools of the Borough to meet socially Friday evening, November 18. The H. C. Gara Class of the Presbyterian Church is again to be favored by a visit from the Rev. Jack Hart, chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania, enthusiast extraordinary, spiritual adviser to the undergraduate, rejuvenator of depressed football teams, and one who can clear any befogged atmosphere.

This opportunity is too large to confine it to the H. C. Gara Class, and invitations are being extended to the men of the sister churches.

The Rev. Jack Hart promises to bring one of the famous undergraduates with him and there is every assurance of a program no one would care to miss.

All those who know Jack Hart or have heard him, recognize him to be one of the most inspirational speakers in Philadelphia.

The first concert of the Main Line Orchestra Association will be held on Sunday, November 20, at the Ardmore Theater.

Anne Pritchard, pianist, will be the soloist.

Boro Zoning Tilt Fizzles---Truce Brings a Four-Word Compromise

The charge of dynamite carefully prepared to blow the Narberth Zoning ordinance to pieces was ignited Wednesday before Judge J. Ambler Williams in Norristown, but instead of exploding, it died with a weak fizz.

The case was the appeal of Mrs. Mary A. Fleming from the ruling of the Adjustment Board, which granted her permission to erect a gas station on her property at Montgomery and Haverford avenues, but did not re-zone her place, which is in a residence district, to permit of other business.

The ruling, which allowed a change from an old blacksmith shop on the property, was simply a change of use, and gave no comfort to the score of other property owners along the pike who wanted to make business buildings out of their properties.

As a result Theodore Lane Bean, attorney for Mrs. Fleming, prepared a voluminous appeal, asking the court to set aside the Adjustment Board ruling and to declare the Zoning Ordinance of the Borough of Narberth null and void.

Because advance indications gave promise of a general attack on the Zoning law, some two dozen residents of Montgomery avenue, hopeful of a reclassification of their properties, were on hand. There were also several opponents of any change in the residential status.

The withdrawal of the zoning attack by Mr. Bean left the case high and dry. Instead of arguments and counter arguments, with testimony by those wishing to change the law, there was a three-minute bar conference and the case was over.

Apparently Mr. Bean had read some of the State and Supreme Court decisions on zoning the night before the hearing, and had realized the futility of an attempt to upset the local law.

When the case was called, Borough Solicitor Fletcher W. Stites and Mr. Bean went up to the bar. "I understand you gentlemen have reached an agreement," said Judge Williams.

The agreement, it was explained, was a compromise by which the words "and emergency automobile accessories" was to be added to the business permitted by the Adjustment Board ruling. No dislodging of the zoning act was involved.

Before Judge Williams was a 15-page appeal written by Mr. Bean, which included opinions to the effect that the Zoning law was "illegal," "void," "unreasonable," "oppressive," "unfair and unjust." It declared that the law does not promote "either the health, or the safety, or the morals, or the general welfare" of the borough.

"The decision you have reached," said the Judge, "is quite simple, but there seems to be a great deal of other material in your petition before me."

"Oh, that was just put in there for the entertainment of the opposing counsel," answered Mr. Bean.

"And for the amusement of the Court, I assure you," remarked Judge Williams with a smile.

HAWS WINS TWO JOBS AND LOSES ANOTHER

Former Postmaster Must Choose Between Two Local Honors.

Edward S. Haws was elected High Constable and member of Council of the Borough of Narberth Tuesday, and was defeated for Register of Wills in the county. It undoubtedly made an interesting day of it.

But the question now before the former postmaster, is whether or not to be measured for the robes, the plush breeches, the buckled shoes and high hat which go with the High Constableness of the borough of Narberth.

For if he accepts the honor involved, he must search in libraries to find out just what a high constable is, and then fill the office with all the pomp and dignity of a Lord Mayor of London.

It is probable, however, that Mr. Haws will choose the other job offered him—a seat on Borough Council.

At the primary election someone found the words "High Constable" on the ballot, and proceeded to amuse himself by writing Mr. Haws' name in. That nominated him. No one realized the fact—in fact no one knew there was such a creature as a high constable, until the regular ballots appeared with the Dudley avenue plasterer duly listed as the Republican candidate, to give battle to C. W. Merkle, Democratic aspirant.

And now that he is elected, Mr. Haws must resign if he is to sit at the Council table. Perhaps the courts will choose a worthy successor. Perhaps the noble office will die. Who knows?

SCOUT MOTHERS TO MEET

The Mother's Association of the Girl Scouts will hold their regular monthly meeting next Wednesday, November 15, at the Scout House at 2.30 P. M.

MONTGOMERY AVENUE KENNELS DESTROYED

Spectacular Fire Wipes Out Barn Near Gulph Road.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Rokeby Kennels on Montgomery avenue below Narberth avenue, at 5.30 Wednesday morning. Twenty-eight dogs, some said to be valuable, were destroyed.

Abe Swartz, proprietor of the kennels, estimated the damage to buildings and dogs in excess of $10,000. A large barn, and several small structures were destroyed, and the rear of the Broadfield Inn, a roadhouse maintained by William Laird, was damaged.

The fire was discovered by Vernon Fleck, a member of the company, delivering milk for the Supplee-Wills-Jones dairies. He roused the Laird family and turned in an alarm, then tied his horse and helped the first firemen on the scene.

By the time the fire was discovered a sheet of flame was rising, visible for miles, and the efforts of the 28 men who responded, assisted by the Cynwyd company, were confined to saving the surrounding buildings.

A deep ditch across the property, which soon filled with water, was a danger spot in the path of the firemen, and several members of the company, wet to the skin, carry colds as a result of the fire. William Blackledge and a Cynwyd fireman were slightly burned.

The fact that it was a wet night, according to Chief Charles V. Noel, was fortunate, for embers were falling in all directions on shingle roofs.

W. M. S. MEETS TUESDAY

The Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Tommey, 1034 Montgomery avenue, next Tuesday at 2 P. M.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD MEETS WEDNESDAY

Annual Event to Include Display of Garments by Members.

MAGISTRATE TO SPEAK

On Wednesday, November 16, the Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild will hold its annual meeting in the Presbyterian Church. There will be an open meeting at 2 P. M., to which the women of Narberth are invited, and the speaker of the day will be Violet Muir Fahnestock, Magistrate of the Court of Philadelphia.

Miss R. K. Bender, National Secretary, will speak about the work of the Guild and will be glad to answer any questions. After the program the garments collected will be on display, and it is hoped that many women will take this opportunity to join the branch. The membership requirements are two garments, or a donation of money.

An interesting history of the Narberth Branch has been prepared by the secretary, which follows:

"The Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild was organized on February 24, 1904, at the home of Mrs. R. H. Wallace by Mrs. D. G. Alsop, of the Haverford Branch. The first officers were Mrs. R. H. Wallace, president, Mrs. A. H. Mueller, treasurer, and Mrs. A. J. Lees, secretary, and 13 women joined as directors. During the first year 315 garments were collected. It is interesting to note that in this, the twenty-third year of the Branch, there are 56 directors, while last year 1724 garments were distributed. Mrs. Lees was secretary for 11 years, and Mrs. Mueller is still treasurer.

"In 1906 a children's class in charge of Mrs. R. L. Beatty was formed, with 28 girls; later in the same year a class of larger girls was formed with seven girls starting, under Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. A. R. Justice. During the world war the Guild did a great deal of work in the way of hospital supplies and other war relief, under the direction of Mrs. A. P. Redifer. In 1920 the Branch adopted a child named Abele Gregoire in St. Quentin, but this work was abandoned in 1925, since the need for it no longer existed.

Among the present directors are listed the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion, the Girl Scouts, the Kings Daughters, the Camp Fire Girls, the Thimble Club and the Junior Circle. All of these organizations do worthy work among the sick and afflicted. The Needlework Guild is non-sectarian and should have the interest of every woman in Narberth.

SHULL IN ROTARY TALK

How a descendant of the Scholls that migrated to Pennsylvania from Germany in 1793 came to found the Shull Lumber Company was told the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club at its Tuesday luncheon meeting by Alvin E. Shull, former president of the club. Mr. Shull is that descendant.

The family name was changed early in the nineteenth century, according to the speaker, who, conforming with a Rotary rule, gave a brief account of his life. The Shull Lumber Company was founded in Bala-Cynwyd ten years ago, in 1917, after Mr. Shull had spent years in the wholesale and retail lumber business.

Visitors at Tuesday's meeting were Norman Cole, of the Auto-car Company, member of the Ardmore Rotary Club, and George M. Painter, of Bala, member of the Philadelphia Rotary Club.

PUPILS ENTERTAIN MOTHERS

On Friday afternoon, November 4, the pupils of Miss McCay's room entertained their mothers with a Japanese exhibit and a play. A group of girls in dainty kimonos under the supervision of Mrs. Robert Nash served tea and cakes. The children and their teacher had worked hard to make this an interesting afternoon and the mothers all had a very pleasant time.

LACK OF OPPOSITION TO CANDIDATES CAUSES DULLEST ELECTION IN YEARS

WEATHER GOES BERSERK

Black skies and howling winds have done their worst to make up in November for their absence in October. As a result Tuesday's thermometer sank with a dismal thud to 26 degrees, causing the month's temperature deficiency to date to be 45 degrees, or only four degrees less than that of the same period last year, according to Charles J. A. Decker, Main Line Weather Man.

"Wet" snow began falling Tuesday, at 2.15 P. M., just to show that one never can be sure that the twenty-first day of December is the very first day of winter. Tuesday's precipitation was 1.2 inch. Rainfall has been heavy so far this month, falling on five days of the first eight for a total precipitation of 2.62 inches.

The barometer was high at 30.40 and low at 29.32. High and low temperatures for the seven-day period ending Tuesday night were as follows: Wednesday, 75-49; Thursday, 63-48; Friday, 48-36; Saturday, 51-32; Sunday, 46-32; Monday, 44-30; Tuesday, 40-26.

WATER NOT UP TO PAR, BOARD WARNS

Health Body's Note Follows Three Months' Poor Tests.

QUERY SCHOOLS' MILK

Water supplied the Main Line by the Philadelphia Suburban Water Company has been unsatisfactory from the standpoint of public health for the past three months. This was the statement made by Chemist David Wilbur Horn at the November meeting of the Lower Merion Board of Health, held Monday night in the township building at Ardmore.

Tests made on an average of over six times a month almost invariably showed a plus culture of bacillus coli in the 10 c. c. count during August, September and October, Dr. Horn reported. Plus cultures had appeared rather infrequently until recently, when the health board's chemist found the bacteria count continued high each time he made a test.

The use of more chlorine in the water, to purify it and make it safer for drinking purposes, was recommended by Dr. Bertrand K. Wilbur, president of the board, in a letter which he and Chemist Horn were authorized at Monday's meeting to write the water company.

A high bacteria count in milk served the township during the past month was reported by Dr. G. W. Grim, milk control officer. This is attributed to the action of dairies in removing refrigerating protection from their wagons during varying October weather. The unusually warm days caused the milk to become heated, with an increased bacterial content as a result. The high count is regarded as only temporary, now that cold weather has set in permanently.

MANY AT PARTY

Thirty members of the Junior Community Club enjoyed the Halloween party held last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Nash. All present were costumed and masked.

The prize for the best costume was awarded to Mrs. Patsy Martin Jeffries, who impersonated a bell hop. The next regular meeting of the Juniors will be held next Thursday night at Mrs. Nash's home. Through her courtesy her home is to be the regular meeting place of the club.

IN LEGION PLAY

Several young people from Narberth are in the staff of "Great Guns" now being rehearsed by the Ardmore American Legion. Those in the production include H. Elizabeth Abbott, Mary Clark, Alice Maguire, Madeline Miesen, Helen O'Keefe, Jack O'Keefe and Benedict Lanahan.

Mary Clark, who lives on Sabine avenue, came in third in the contest for a design for a poster.

W. H. M. Society Luncheon.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold its monthly luncheon in the church next Thursday, November 17, at 12.30 o'clock.

Hospital Question, Approved by Narberth, Defeated in County.

WHOLE SLATE VICTORS

Montgomery county on Tuesday staged one of the dullest elections within the memory of its oldest residents. Comparatively few voters appeared at the polls, but those few were sufficient to give the Republican ticket in the county and in the township large majorities.

Neither of the two judges, Knight, of the common pleas court, nor Holland, of the Orphans' Court, had opposition, and both were elected by votes of over 33,000. William H. Fox, candidate for county treasurer, was also unopposed and received a ballot of 32,300. The remaining 13 members of the county Republican ticket had Democratic opponents, but all were swept into office by pluralities of 16,000.

Only one county office went to the Democrats, and this was that of minority representative on the county commission, allotted them by law. A contest for this post between Dr. J. Rein Keelor, incumbent, and Francis Hayes, was won by Keelor, who was given votes here and there by Republican organization members. His plurality was approximately 3000.

The only place where there was the semblance of a fight was over the question as to whether or not the county should build a tuberculosis hospital. A yes and no vote was required on this, as the question had been placed on the ballots by petition.

Opposed by the county commissioners, this project was fought strongly in some sections of the county, and in others where it was feared that the local electorate might be antagonized by an out-and-out fight, it was mentioned but little or not at all. Even with this unorganized campaign, the county organization leaders, defeated the hospital by a majority of over 1500.

In the borough there was no opposition to the regular slate chosen at the primaries. Most of the candidates were nominated on both tickets, and lost no sleep worrying about the outcome. There were also very few stunt and comedy names written in.

The candidates for the principal offices, with the votes polled, will be found in a table on page one of this issue. Other officials elected were:

Judge of Elections: (District 1), Ralph E. Seaboldt, 152. (District 2), J. W. McAuliffe, 130; T. C. Trotter, 46. (District 3), J. Baird Caldwell, 147.

Inspector of Elections: (District 1), J. Q. Mackey, 115; C. C. Mason, 309. (District 2), C. C. Tyson, 142; W. Howard Haws, 42. (District 3), Addison H. Durboraw, 119; Grace L. Smith, 27.

The tuberculosis hospital project was favorably voted on in Narberth by the score of 201 to 33, and in Lower Merion by 794 to 550. Up-county voters and Norristown politicians succeeded in defeating the measure, however.

ANNUAL MEETING

Union Devotional Service of Young People Tomorrow.

The Narberth League of Young People's Societies have announced their plans for the first big Devotional Meeting of the season. This meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church Sunday at 6.30 o'clock.

The league has been successful in securing none other than our good friend and citizen, Fletcher W. Stites, as speaker. Come early for a seat. The Methodist Young People are being congratulated for securing this enjoyable speaker. The Presbyterians, Lutherans and Baptists are planning for special musical talent, ushers, song leader, etc.

This is an appointment for young people, who may invite friends and parents if they choose to see Narberth's young people in action.

At the Theater

Three Interesting Films at Narberth
Next Week.

"Clancy's Kosher Wedding" will be the first picture shown next week at the Narberth Theater. It is a comedy showing the rivalry between two tradesmen—one an Irishman, the other a Jew. The chief part is played by George Sidney the well-known portrayer of humorous Jewish roles, and the whole picture is full of fun and bright comedy.

The inimitable Clara Bow and a new star, Alyce Mills, will appear in "My Lady's Lips"—the second picture of the week. Of Miss Bow's powers as an actress, Mr. James P. Hogan, who directed her in the picture, says:

"Next to being a child, the best thing in the world is to have the heart of a child. The most perfect proof of this essential quality for becoming a great actress is in Clara Bow. She finds it possible to go almost instantly from uproarious mirth to tears. She has more real genius than any other actress in the films today."

Renee Adoree and John Gilbert, one of the most famous combinations of the films, have the leading roles in "Honor First," also to be shown at the Narberth Theater next week. It is a thrilling story of Paris and the World War, written by George Gibbs, who knows how to portray France and the French, and who is, incidentally, a resident of the Main Line. In this picture John Gilbert plays a dual part, appearing in two characters. Physically alike, but mentally and spiritual opposites, twin brothers in the French army, whose apparent similarity brings about tragic complications.

SPECIAL WEEKLY EXCURSION

In order that Narberth people may have the advantage of a low rate Sunday excursion fare to Atlantic City, the Pennsylvania Railroad, beginning November 13, will sell a special Sunday excursion ticket directly from Narberth to the shore resort, good for one day only, at a cost of $1.80. This includes the regular $1.50 Sunday excursion rate between Philadelphia and Atlantic City, plus half the regular round trip fare between Narberth and Philadelphia.

The excursion tickets will be good on the regular train leaving Narberth at 6:59 A. M., arriving Broad street station at 7:15 A. M. The special excursion train will leave Market street wharf at 8 A. M., arriving Atlantic City, South Carolina avenue station at 9:20 A. M.

Returning the excursion train will leave South Carolina avenue station at 5:30 P. M., arriving Market street wharf 6:50 P. M. Passengers will board convenient connecting trains for Narberth at Broad street station.

CLUB NOTES

Coming Events of Women's Com munity Club.

The Women's Community Club are very fortunate in having Reba S. Kelly as guest speaker for the regular meeting on November 15. Reba Kelly needs no introduction to those who have heard her former Book Reviews. She is a charming speaker and brings a touch of originality to her work that brings it far above the average. She is a member of the Speakers' Bureau, and will give her audience a treat they cannot afford to miss.

The Parliamentary Law Class under the direction of Mrs. E. C. Bachelor will hold its second meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Mueller, 208 Essex avenue, Monday, November 14, at 10:30 A. M. This class is creating a great deal of interest in this subject and all members are cordially invited to attend.

The Music Study Class held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Staples, 124 Woodside avenue, will have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Joseph Barclay sing on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

On Tuesday, November 22, a Home Economics Class, under the direction of Mrs. E. Mueller, chairman of American Home Department, will meet at 2 P. M. This will include a Sewing Class.

Discarded clothing, shoes, hats, etc., will be collected for distribution among the poor by the Welfare Committee of the Women's Club. Send clothing, etc., to 216 Dudley or call Narberth 3921-J.

Hard COAL

WHICH?

It's false economy to put off starting the heater till the last minute. A damp, chilly house is a tax on the system already burdened with the task of fighting off the attacks of cold and flu germs. A safely heated house is a house maintained at constant temperature. This requires that uniform, even fire which only coal of clean, pure quality and of the proper size for your heater can give.

Mrs. Alexander Brown, chairman, called a meeting of the District Chairmen at Red Cross Headquarters, Memorial Building, Bryn Mawr, Tuesday, October 25. The following were appointed: Villanova, Mrs. Frederick Drayton; Rosemont, Mrs. Lawrence Pancoast and Mrs. H. Carr; Bryn Mawr, Mrs. Walter C. Janney; Miss Ethel Townsend, Mr. Joseph Harrison, Mr. William Hayden, Mr. James Cairns; Haverford, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Charles S. Starr and Miss Mabel Pusey; Ardmore, Mrs. David E. Williams, Mrs. Albert L. Reinhold and the Bullock-Sanderson Post of the American Legion of Ardmore; Wynnewood, Mrs. Alexander T. Dickson; Merion, Mrs. J. W. Hollowell, Jr.; Mrs. Clarence Bartlett; Narberth, Mrs. H. C. Fenno; Gladwynne, Mrs. W. B. Lowmes, Sr.; Beechwood, Mrs. Milton B. Huston; L.ookline, Mrs. Lillie I. Lambert; Olanerch, Mrs. W. B. Cowan; Oakmont, Mrs. Joseph F. Sample. Mrs. J. Townsend, Jr., is in charge of the Roll Call Publicity.

Mrs. Brown says: "It is greatly appreciated this year that the different posts of the American Legion have offered their co-operation to the Red Cross and we feel sure with them back of us the Roll Call will be 'bigger and better' than ever. As the Roll Call is the only source of income the Red Cross has, with some contribution from friends interested in the local work, we must work hard and beat our record of last year, which was 5922 members. Please join when the worker calls, and when it is possible take a higher form of membership than the dollar.

Headquarters at the Memorial Building, Bryn Mawr, and at the Community Health and Civic Association, No. 25 East Athens avenue, Ardmore, will gladly take memberships and answer any questions. The Roll Call extends from Armistice Day, November 11, to Thanksgiving Day, November 25.

Dog Licenses Higher

The Bureau of Animal Industry, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, in forwarding to County Treasurers the 1928 dog license tags, has called attention to the several changes in the license fees, made by the recent General Assembly.

Kennel license fees have been increased to $10.00 for 10 dogs or less, and $20.00 for more than 10 dogs. Applicants for a spayed female license must present a certificate from a veterinarian or an affidavit from the owner.

All half rate licenses have been abolished.

Duplicate tags are only furnished upon presenting the original receipt and paying a fee of 60 cents.

There are other changes in the Dog law, but they do not become effective until January 15, 1928.

THE NEW ERA IN TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION

SENDING PICTURES BY TELEPHONE

BELL Telephone scientists invented a machine for sending pictures over a telephone wire.

Telephone research—to improve your telephone service—gave it birth.

From this same effort have come Television, Vitaphone, Radio Telephone, Public Address Systems, Radio networks, the improved phonograph, and medical aids such as the Audiphone, Audiometer, and Electric Stethoscope.

All these things grew out of studies and experiments to make your telephone service better.

The fact that you can make out-of-town calls to nearby points just like local calls is, to you, a more tangible result.

A newly developed high speed service to more distant points is another.

The whole American nation, and Canada and Cuba—and now parts of Europe and Mexico—have been brought into your home or office.

Because of ceaseless study and experiment, your telephone service—your every-day use of the telephone—is today more dependable, more accurate, more highly personalized, and is greatly increased in scope.

BREAK MAINTAINS HAVERFORD RECORD

Lucky Bounce Helps Visitors Tie L. M. H. S. and Remain Undefeated.

In one of the most spectacular games of the year the unbeaten Haverford High School team held the Maroon and White of Lower Merion to a 6-6 tie. The game was played on the Ardmoreites field in a virtual sea of mud that caused the players much discomfort.

Captain Cook won the toss for Lower Merion and elected to receive. Haverford's initial kick-off traveled only a few yards before it rolled out of bounds and the kick had to be tried again. Had Lower Merion been awake to what was going on it could have fallen on the ball before it went out of bounds, thus securing the ball near midfield. As it was the ball was allowed to roll out of bounds and when Haverford kicked off again the oval went deep into Lower Merion's territory, a condition that had much to do with the final score of the game.

It took Lower Merion the whole of the first period and part of the second to march the length of the field for its score. Then later on in the second period Lower Merion went through another advance that was finally stopped by the end of the half with the ball less than a foot from Haverford's goal. Now had Lower Merion been on the job early in the game it would have had much less work for its score and might possibly have pushed over another touchdown in the time that it took to score the one.

The play of the entire first half was entirely favorable to Lower Merion with Haverford simply out-classed. Ossie Smith and Bill Mearns played stellar parts in the Lower Merion gains that put the ball in position for "Reds" Kohlhas to score on a line plunge. Kohlhas also played a prominent part as inter-ferer for the two backs.

The second half started with Haverford receiving Captain Cook's kick-off on its own 10-yard line. The early part of this period was a punting duel between Bonner, of Haverford, and Mearns, who did the kicking for Lower Merion. Towards the end of the third period, however, Haverford secured the ball in midfield and started its first real offensive when Bonner went through the line for a 10-yard gain, giving Haverford its first first down of the game.
